A Pilgrimage Through the Serbian & Montenegrin Monasteries

May 11-May21, 2006

When one considered a pilgrimage through our Holy monasteries, our people always knew, valued, respected and practiced the following : wheather happy or glad, sad or grieving, tired or unsettled, they visited the Holy places-the monasteries. They gathered, whether to thank God for all goods received from Him, wheather to find comfort from their troubles and pain, or to pray for God`s grace in their good works. They found everthing in the quietude of the monasteries through the prayers of the monks and the france of incense whose scent was so sweet and distinct - Bishop Jovan
